OCTOBER 5, 2004

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OVERLAND PARK MAN INDICTED FOR BANK ROBBERY

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that an Overland Park, Kan., man was indicted by a federal grand jury today for robbing a bank in Kansas City, Mo.

John Gail, 35, of Overland Park, was charged in an indictment returned by a federal grand jury in Kansas City.

The federal indictment alleges that Gail robbed the Bank of America, located at 2728 N.E. Vivion Road in Kansas City, on Sept. 14, 2004. The indictment alleges that Gail took by force from a teller at the bank approximately $1,508.

Graves cautioned that the charge contained in the indictment is simply an accusation, and not evidence of guilt. Evidence supporting the charge must be presented to a federal trial jury, whose duty is to determine guilt or innocence.

This case is being prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney D. Michael Green. The case was investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
